FasterLouder - Podcasts - Download - Good

At FasterLouder.com.au we are lucky enough to hear all the latest music before anyone else. We think it's about time we shared the love with our loyal members, so we're pretty darn pleased to announce the launch of FasterLouder Podcasts.

Each FL Podcast features six of the newest rock music tracks as well as exclusive feature interviews with artists and giveaways from Sony Ericsson Walkman Phones. And our favourite part? Every podcast features a new unsigned Aussie band, giving them the opportunity to be heard by truckloads of savvy music fans all around the country.

Presented by FasterLouder Editor, Cec Busby, the show weighs in around half an hour in duration and is available for download for free by FL members (at a high quality 128KPBS). Plus you'll get a new show every fortnight. Think of the new bands you'll discover!

FasterLouder Podcasts are available to download now, with new sessions available on the site each fortnight. The current podcast is crammed with new tracks from Dinosaur Jr, Operator Please, The Mares, The Chalets, White Rose Movement and much much more.
