

TOP OF THE STATES

The competition for a place in the Garage 2 V final is really hotting up. After raucous performances at the Western Australia regional heat, Wales were crowned regional heat winners by the top industry judges, and booked their place at the Garage 2 V grand final in conjunction with FasterLouder.com.au.

Wales will now make the long journey to Sydney on 13th March and play alongside My Disco at the famous Oxford Art Factory. Their final performance at the grand final will need to be their best if they want to claim the ultimate prize and open in front of 100,000 music fans at the second Australian V Festival across all four events, in which Duran Duran and the Smashing Pumpkins will headline.

Mitchell Reddell from Wales said: "We are massively stoked to have won the Perth heat. Having never entered a band comp before, we came in not knowing what to expect, and now we've come out with a trip to Sydney. This is the raddest thing ever to have happened to Wales."

Tickets to the final are FREE and only available from www.g2v.com.au and www.fasterlouder.com.au. Virgin Mobile customers should also bring their phone for a few surprises on the night! Check out www.g2v.com.au to hear tracks from the state finalists!
